

Hawaiian Language 🌺 [1]
Native Language of Hawaii
Rules & Tips				Pronouns		Sentence Building
Plural: put "nā" before noun nā popoki = cats / the cats				I	au	we	Tense + Verb + Pronoun + article + Noun
Negation: put "A'ole" before pronoun A'ole au 'ai = I don't eat				you	'oe	yall	Hawaiian
Pronouns go after verb example: "go I" "run I"				he/she	'o ia	they	English
				Possessive Pronouns		the teacher, the(plural) teacher
				change kā to ko if cant lose "inalienable"		I want water
All letters (h, k, l, m, n, p, w, ' , a, e, i, o, u)
K (softer)	P (softer)	ka/ke	The	my	ka'u	we, not u	Makemake au i wai
' (stop in oh-oh)	W (v in vain)	nā	The (plural 2+)	your	kāu	me & u	kēnā pōpoki, kēnā mau pōpoki
a, e, i, o, u (Spanish vowels)	Only use ke if word starts with (k,e,a,o) otherwise use ka			his/her	kāna	yalls	that cat, that plural cat
ā, ē, ī, ō, ū (longer vowels)		he	"A"	their	kā lākou	yall2	Hīmeni au, Hīmeni 'oe
Prepositions					kā lāua	our2	sing I, sing you with me	into	ma loko	"A" plural / some	their2	kā lāua	our2	I worked at ma	?	ā	Tense	our2ex	kā māua here mai			Now ing ke + verb + nei	Object Marker (cases)		I went into the house of ko			ke hana nei "working"	talks about word after marker		past go i into
			Past ua+ verb	i	Direct Object Marker	I am at the school
			ua hana "worked"			be i at the school
			Future e + verb + ana			You are with the child
			e hana ana "will work"			The luau is today.
			Command! e + verb			The luau is today.
			e hana "work!" or "to work"			The luau is today.
			Don't! mai + verb			Dont work!
			mai hana "don't work"			Mai hana			